

ABOLITION OF SLAVERY BICENTENARY Original Slave Narratives

 Unchained Memories READINGS FROM THE SLAVE NARRATIVES FOREWORD BY HENRY LOUIS GATES, JR. INTRODUCTION BY SPENCER CREW AND CYNTHIA GOODMAN BASED ON THE HBO DOCUMENTARY	Unchained Memories: Slave Narratives A compilation drawn from a collection of more than 2000 interviews with former slaves conducted by the American government's Works Progress Administration during the 1930s and known as the Slave Narrative Collection. Former slaves describe their personal experiences of living in slavery in the United States.	 THE DEFINITIVE ANTHOLOGY OF FEMALE SLAVE NARRATIVES SOUL SURVIVORS EDITED BY MARCIA WILLIAMS Black Classics	Soul Survivors The definitive anthology of female slave narratives Black women born into slavery tell it like it really was. Their own words record the suffering and oppression they endured during their enslavement Edited by the author Marcia Williams.
---	---	--	---

Also:

Annie L Burton

Women's Slave Narratives

True stories of endurance and survival, an "unflinching account of the black experience of slavery."

Norman Yetman, ed.

When I was a slave: memoirs

Personal accounts collected by the Federal Writers' Project for the Library of Congress.

Please see the Biographies list for individual accounts.

RICHMOND UPON THAMES LIBRARY SERVICES

RICHMOND UPON THAMES LIBRARY SERVICES