

JAR update following the joint set up meeting with lead inspector 18 January 2007

Key points for your information

Lead inspector – Steve Hart CSCI

Steve has been the lead inspector on five JARs. His background is senior management in social services with a particular focus on child protection and substance misuse

Deputy lead inspector – Morag Bowden HMI Ofsted

Morag's background is senior management in education. She has been involved in a number of JARs.

Rest of the team

The names of the rest of the team are yet to be confirmed but the composition will be as follows:

Lead inspector CSCI

Deputy lead inspector

Ofsted inspector x 1

CSCI x 2

Adult learning x1

Health Care Commission – Carol Long

Link inspector across Corporate Assessment x1

Total of 8 inspectors

Youth Service Inspection – led by Clive Rowe

We are awaiting further detail on this team

Youth Offending Team – Dan Parks

There will be up to five inspectors carrying out this inspection

Selected areas for investigation by the inspection team

- Looked after children
- Children and young people with learning difficulties and or disabilities
- Safeguarding
- Quality of service and outcomes achieved post 16
- Effectiveness of school improvement strategies in raising achievement
- Quality of service and outcomes of Child and Adolescent Mental Health service.

Key dates JAR

30 March	documentation return to include the review of the CYPP/APA
12 & 13 April	analysis week 1
16-20 April	analysis week 2
16 & 17 April	APA inspection
8-11 May	fieldwork week 1
14-18 May	fieldwork week 2

For further information or support please contact Angela Thomas 020 8891 7552 a.thomas@richmond.gov.uk