

FILM LONDON IN 90 SECONDS: CAPITAL TALES

The London Borough of Richmond upon Thames in association with Film London invites you to submit a 90 second film telling your story about London, giving you a chance to win a cash prize of £250 and the opportunity of having your film screened before a public audience in.

There are two age categories; under 16s and over 16s and the winner from each will be awarded a cash prize of £250.

An overall winner will then be decided and the winning film submitted to The Best of Film London in 90 Seconds: Capital Tales.

All submitted films will be shown at a special screening night at Orleans House Gallery

Applicants do not need to have any experience of filmmaking and films can be shot on any camera or mobile phone etc.

Each submitted film should tell a story about London, this can cover any subject, genre or style so long as films are shot in Richmond.

If you are looking for a bit of inspiration to get you started, you can choose one of our optional themes to help get inspired:

- A Day in the Life of...
- Past Present Future
- The Experiment
- Hidden London
- The Journey

Competition Guidelines

Submission:

- The primary contact for the film must be the individual who is named in the application form and be resident in Richmond upon Thames.
- The deadline for entries is Thursday 31st March 2011.
- All films must be submitted by post to the address at the bottom of this form
- All films submitted must be marked with the title of the film, the name of the film-maker and a contact phone number and email.
- You may submit up to 2 films
- Films (up to a maximum of 2) must be accompanied by an application form (Submitted films without a form will not be accepted)
- Only films completed since January 2010 may be submitted. We strongly encourage film-makers to make a film specifically for this competition, rather than submit an older project or re-edit a longer project to fit the 90 second limit.
- Applicants cannot resubmit films submitted to the 2010 competition.
- We strongly recommend that the submitted film is NOT shown online (e.g. Facebook, Youtube or Myspace) before the results of the competition are announced.

Length, Genre and Format

- The length of your film must not exceed 90 seconds including titles and credits. (please note you MUST include the title in your film, but the use of credits is optional)
- Film Richmond upon Thames in 90 seconds accepts films of any form (e.g. fiction, documentary, experimental, animation) or any combination of these. The competition is not open to films advertising products or services.
- Films can be made on any format (e.g. Mobile phones, Digital Video, Film)
- All films must be able to be viewed on a computer or DVD player and therefore should be playable on a standard DVD or submitted either as a .mov file (quicktime movie file) a Windows Media file (.wmv) an .avi or .mkv files.
- All films must be submitted either on DVD or CD clearly marked with the title of the film, the name of the film-maker and a contact phone number and email

Copyright, Credits and License

- The person submitting the film must be the person named in the completed application form and must have gained the necessary permissions for the use of any copyrighted music and / or copyrighted images used within the film.
We strongly recommend that you include only original music and sound during your film. For an explanation about copyright, what it is, and obtaining permissions, we strongly recommend you read this article:

- By submitting a film to the competition you automatically grant Richmond upon Thames and Film London permission to exhibit the film on a non-exclusive basis whereby the film can be shown by Richmond upon Thames and Film London in connection with this competition, without either Richmond upon Thames or Film London being required to seek further permissions.
- Richmond upon Thames and Film London will require a credit on your film, should you be selected as the best of your borough. You do not have to include a credit for either Richmond upon Thames or Film London when submitting your film, but be aware that a credit will be required to be added later for exhibition purposes.

Anyone involved in this competition will be responsible for any consequence of their own negligent actions.

Selection and Prize

- Your film will be judged by Borough officers and Film London representatives
- The winning films in your Borough will be awarded a cash prize of £250
The winning film from each participating Borough will be judged by a panel of film industry professionals who will choose one overall winner – The Best of Film London in 90 Seconds: Capital Tales.
- The Best of Film London in 90 Seconds: Capital Tales, will be shown at a public screening during a presentation in Summer 2011.
