A very happy New Year to you all.

To kick off the New Year we have four new houses registered with us and one empty office space in Twickenham. The office space is in a quiet part of central Twickenham and is available for a few months only. It's unfurnished so offers plenty of scope for dressing.

If you would like to film at any of our privately registered properties please give us a call. We do not charge you a fee – our commission comes directly from the owner. We have several high end properties that are also registered with all the big location agencies, so why not save some money and come directly to us. Once we have an in principle agreement from the owner we're very happy for you to go direct. Have a look at www.richmond.gov.uk/filmrichmond. The log in is 'locationmanager' and the password is 'richmond'. You have absolutely nothing to lose and everything to gain!

Filming News

We've had some lovely location managers film recently. Particular thanks to Nick Williams for managing the Sky Sports Christmas commercial in Twickenham in December - all was calm and all was most definitely bright.

Thanks also to Richard May and John Prendergast who set up filming for new TV drama Murder on the Home Front at Richmond Theatre on Remembrance Sunday. The theatre is right on the Remembrance Sunday parade route and the parade was required to salute dignitaries standing on the theatre steps as they walked past. After initial concerns were addressed and reassurances made to council departments and ward councillors that it would be managed in a sensitive way - we secured agreement from all concerned. The production company was able to make a donation to the Royal British Legion which they were delighted with. Thanks to everyone who filmed in Richmond over the last few months. We look forward to seeing you very soon.

Richmond Stars

September and October had visits from CPL Productions who filmed for a new hidden camera series 'Off Their Rockers' in Richmond. Mob Films took over a side of Richmond Green for a German After Eight commercial (and gave generously to Friends of Richmond Green and the local business association while they were at it). Optomen filmed a number of days for their Britain's Shoppers series and ITV's Mr Selfridge, on TV now, came to Richmond Theatre for two days (and also donated to Richmond Green's Friend's Group for which we thank them). Hat Trick Productions filmed scenes for a new television drama Stage Door Johnnies inside and outside Twickenham Studios and Boundless Productions filmed with their Apprentices around Richmond. It was also the time of year for student filming - which we were very happy to help with and offered advice where needed.

November and December saw Molly Moon Productions film at Teddington Studios and Carnival Film and Television came to Richmond Theatre for a new TV drama Murder on the Home Front. December's highlight by far and away though, was Father Christmas arriving early when Sky Sports booked him to star in their Christmas on Sky Sports campaign. Real reindeer came to Twickenham and BSkyB made a very welcome donation to the Church Street Traders which went towards the cost of their Christmas lights.
