INTRODUCTION

---

I am delighted to welcome you to the 2017 Richmond upon Thames Music and Drama Festival.

Now in its third year, the festival continues the tradition of presenting the diverse range of talent which exists within the borough, celebrating the performing arts in all forms. Over three weeks we will be hosting concerts and performances covering a broad spectrum of music, dance and drama from choral workshops, folk and rock and roll, to jazz collectives, musical theatre, opera and even a lost Shakespeare play.

We are proud to be able to showcase just some of the exceptional talent that exists within our wonderful borough and will bring you work from local arts organisations, young people, schools and the Barnes Music Festival, as well as performances from professional and international artists especially for this year's festival. We hope you will be able to join us at the Festival Opening Concert on Sunday 12 March which will feature a showcase of new and exciting work and officially mark the start of the 2017 Music and Drama Festival. See page 7 for details.

Stay up to date via the festival website www.richmond.gov.uk/musicanddrama and follow us on Twitter @LBRUTmusicdrama.

Thank you to all of our performers, venues, patrons and sponsors for helping make this what I know will be a wonderful event. We look forward to seeing you in March.

Meena Bond
Cabinet Member for Arts, Culture and Sport

Arts Richmond are pleased to support this innovative performing arts festival for the borough.

SPECIAL EVENT

RichDance

3 and 4 March, check for performance times

The Hammond Theatre, Hampton School

£8.50/£4.50

An exhilarating two-day celebration of all forms of dance. This year's programme will showcase an exciting variety of performances from dance companies and choreographers, professional and emerging dance artists, local schools, and youth and community groups from across London.

Now in its 15th year, RichDance is the borough's annual platform for new dance and our aim is to make dance accessible to all by offering performance opportunities to those inspired by it.

Arts Richmond

Choral Workshop on Gershwin

Saturday 4 March, 10am–4pm

St Richard's Church, Ham

£20 (price includes music score and tea & coffee during the day)

This year Arts Richmond's Choral Workshop invites singers of all abilities to come along and sing well-loved songs by one of the greatest song writers of the early twentieth century - George Gershwin. Musical Director James Hawkins has extensive experience working with top musicians, choirs and singing groups in both the studio and live concert environments. He draws on over 15 years of experience in teaching, coaching, recording and producing music to bring a refreshing, modern approach to his musical direction.

Book tickets via Arts Richmond:

Eel Pie Club: Tribute to Cyril Davies featuring the Alan Glen/John O'Leary All-Stars plus guests

Thursday 9 March, doors 7.45pm,
music 8.30pm–11pm

Eel Pie Club at The Patch, The Cabbage Patch
£12/£10 Members, £5 Students (must bring photo ID)

Some of the finest musicians in the UK will pay tribute to the music of Cyril Davies and Alexis Korner and the release in 1963 of Country Line Special/Chicago Calling. This annual all-star event is one of the most popular in the Eel Pie calendar. The Alan Glen/John O'Leary All-Stars are: Alan Glen (Yardbirds, Nine Below Zero), John O'Leary (Downliners Sect, Savoy Brown), Tim Penn (Cadillac Kings), Nick Newall (Kinks, Zoot Money), Glynn Evans (Ray Davies, Martha and The Vandellas), Al Vincent (Daniel Smith Band), Peter Miles (Joann Kelly, Radical Sheiks).

Thames Philharmonia Concert

Saturday 11 March, 7.30pm

Landmark Arts Centre

£12/£8 LAC members, seniors and under 18s;
£24 families (2+2)

English music with works by Elgar, Vaughan Williams and a contemporary, Indian-born British composer, Naresh Sohal. Some of these works are rarely performed despite their wonderful themes. There are large legato passages of tremendous excitement in Elgar's In the South Overture and a beautiful, extended and bold viola. A soprano features prominently in Vaughan Williams' Pastoral Symphony no. 3, however the violin will be in the spotlight with Vaughan Williams' The Lark Ascending a concerto by Naresh Sohal, both played by the brilliant Victoria Baek, who studied violin at the St. Petersburg Conservatory and graduated from the Guildhall School of Music.

BARNES MUSIC FESTIVAL

Barnes Music Festival Opening Concert: Four Seasons

Saturday 11 March, 7.30pm
St Mary's Church, Barnes

Violinist Tasmin Little is soloist and conductor in this unique coupling: Vivaldi's Four Seasons meets Roxanna Panufnik's Four World Seasons.

Vivaldi's The Four Seasons offers a set of vivid tableaux, imaginative and enticing, with ample chance for the soloist to display technique, sensitivity and colour. These are qualities that Roxanna Panufnik also sought for her Four World Seasons, written for Tasmin Little. Three of the pieces are dedicated to her, while Autumn in Albania is dedicated to the memory of Panufnik's father, the Polish composer Sir Andrzej Panufnik.

Low Level Panic by Clare McIntyre

16 February – 25 March,
check for performance times
Orange Tree Theatre
£20/E25 (concessions £15 & under 30s £12)

Three flatmates. A single bathroom. Mary needs to talk about something. But Jo's in the bath, fantasizing about being someone else. And Celia just wants to look her best for the party tonight. In this funny, timely and unapologetic play, three twenty-something women figure out how they really feel about sex, their bodies and each other. The first major revival of Clare McIntyre's play for nearly 30 years.

Nocturne: Music & Poetry Recital

Monday 13 March, 7.30pm

£15

Violinist Madeleine Mitchell, described by The Times as 'one of the UK's liveliest musical forces' brings the wonderful programme she created with distinguished Barnes poet and librettist, David Harsent on the theme of night, together with the world-premiere of a piece for violin and narrator celebrating nocturnal Barnes. Evocative music for violin and piano alternates with Harsent reading poems from his award winning collection, Night plus the exquisite 3 Pieces for Violin and Piano by Howells of 1917, including a Russian Lament. They are joined by BMF regular, pianist Marc Verter.

Richmond Theatre

*Tickets from £15 (in person at the Box Office) or from £16.90 (online and telephone bookings*). *Online and telephone bookings also carry a transaction fee of £2.85 + a per ticket booking fee*

Following the sell-out success of The Perfect Murder and Dead Simple, Not Dead Enough comes to Richmond Theatre.

On the night Brian Bishop murdered his wife, he was sixty miles away, asleep in bed. At least that's what he claims. But as Superintendent Roy Grace starts to dig a little deeper into the murder case, it soon becomes clear that love can be a dangerous thing.

Directed by Olivier Award winner Ian Talbot, Not Dead Enough is the third play in Peter James' box office smash hit and critically acclaimed franchise.

Darell School An Evening with Sam

Friday 17 March, 7pm
Darell Primary and Nursery School
Free (booking in advance essential)

Sam and Stan were once the best of friends running a successful music company together. After a slight difference of opinion, their working relationship came to a curt end in what can only be described as a mass custard pie extravaganza! Desperate to keep the show on the road, Sam goes it alone and sets up his own musical café.

Stan cannot resist temptation and heads down to 5th Street to visit Sam's Café. Sam has some fabulous musical acts including the all new London cast of Joseph and his Amazing Technicolour Dream Coat with a guest appearance from the Darell ukulele choir. Stan thinks it would have been so much better had they remained as a team. Chaos ensues!

Duo Maddalena Easter Music

Friday 17 March, 7.30pm
St Mary's Church, Twickenham
£10

Duo Maddalena presents a concert of beautiful Easter-themed music from the Baroque period. Ranging from the joyful to the contemplative and sorrowful, we include liturgical music related to the crucifixion, and secular themes of birth, renewal, growth and love. Alongside favourite vocal and instrumental works by Bach, Handel, Vivaldi, Pergolesi, we present music by Francesca Caccini, Elizabeth Jacquet, and other less familiar composers. We are a soprano and a mezzo, joined by friends and colleagues providing historically-informed accompaniment. For this concert we welcome Jocelyn Slocombe and Helen West on violins, Anna Page on viola, Gerald Place on viola da gamba, and Allan Moore on the harpsichord.

Tickets available on the door

Triple Bill- I still remain, Alpha & The Filth
Friday 17 March, RACC, Parkshot 7.30pm
Saturday 25 March, St Mary's Church, Barnes, 7.30pm
£13 adult/ £10 child

Three twenty minute thoughtfully choreographed pieces of dance:

I Still Remain is a piece that has been created to embody the feelings of those who are involved with modern day slavery and sex trafficking.

Alpha is for all members of the family looking at the way different animals move as well as bringing to life their distinct personalities through dance. Includes beautiful art work in the form of masks. A fun and enjoyable piece combined with African music.

The Filth looks at the negative impact alcohol and drugs can have on young people.

 18 – 25 March, check for performance times
 Orange Tree Theatre
 £15/ Under 30s £12

Misunderstandings, confusions and chaos, meet a world full of ambition, trickery and experimentation. A life where love does not necessarily appear how you expect it to. A time where the rules may not be as clear cut as they once used to be...

In 90 minutes, 6 actors bring Shakespeare's darkest comedy to life in a mischievous, feisty and fast paced production.

Shakespeare Up Close aims to make Shakespeare relevant to a younger audience by teaming a vibrant production with crystal clear text.

Cantanti Camerati
Spring Serenade: Not Strictly Just a Song
 Saturday 18 March, 2.30pm & 7.30pm
 Normansfield Theatre, Teddington
 £15 (under 16s free)

Join local chamber choir Cantanti Camerati in the picturesque Normansfield Theatre for a lighthearted concert in an informal setting. Stephen Gregson, Conductor, will present a contrasting selection of a capella songs from different eras, new and old, plus music from the stage. The programme will include Rutter's Five Childhood Lyrics, an eclectic mix of madrigals and part songs, and will definitely invite audience participation! Our special guests are the Guards' Saxophone Quartet from the Corps of Army Music.

One day whilst Girl is playing in her garden, she comes face to face with... Giraffe! As their friendship grows, Girl discovers that Giraffe isn't very well. She tries everything she can to make him feel a bit better; putting on bandages, making a cup of tea, and even baking a truly magnificent cake, but she doesn't get it quite right. Girl soon realises that Giraffe doesn't need a plaster for a graze on his arm or a scratch on his knee. Giraffe is sad. Sometimes we need a different kind of plaster for the things you can't always see.

Join us for a show featuring charming puppetry, an enchanting soundscape and beautiful storytelling about wellbeing and friendship, told from a child's perspective.

Barnes Concert Band

A Celebration of 100 years of English

Wind Music

Sunday 26 March, 4pm

St Philip and St James Church, Twickenham

£6/ £4, under 16s free (no booking required)

Barnes Concert Band and Friends present a concert celebrating the great tradition of composition for wind instruments by English composers. The programme will showcase works written between 1917 and the present day, by composers including Holst, Vaughan Williams and Nigel Hess.

This concert will feature the fantastically talented local 17 year old clarinettist Cara Doyle, performing a virtuosic contemporary clarinet concerto with the band. The clarinet and saxophone sections (and friends) of Barnes Concert Band will also perform English wind music for single reed ensemble.

Delicious home-made cakes and tea provided after the concert. Conducted by Alan Goodall.

Thames Philharmonic Choir

(with Thames Festival Orchestra) Choral Concert

Saturday 1 April, 7.30pm

Cadogan Hall

£28, £25, £18, £12

This concert features choirs, full orchestra, and tenor and baritone soloists, in two beautifully contrasted works. Vaughan Williams' visionary and powerful Sancta Civitas is based upon the Bible's Revelation of St John the Divine, in which the holy city of the title is seen in a vision coming down to earth from Heaven. Puccini's Messa di Gloria, composed at the age of 21 as his graduation exercise, is a tour de force of brilliant potential.

Book tickets via Cadogan Hall 020 7730 4500 or www.cadoganhall.com

Thames Youth Orchestra

Spring Concert

Saturday 1 April, 7.30pm

St Matthias Church, Richmond

£12/ £6 (no booking required)

Thames Youth Orchestra return to St. Matthias Church in Richmond, with three evocative pieces from some of the greatest English composers of the 20th Century. Featuring Walton's Portsmouth Point, Britten's Four Sea Interludes and Holst's iconic The Planets, the concert promises to be a fantastic night of music.

Twickenham Choral Society

WORDS AND MUSIC with Timothy West and Twickenham Choral Society

Saturday 1 April, 7.30pm

St Mary's Church, Twickenham

£16

Words and music of great beauty, reflecting on sorrow, joy, compassion and repentance, in a cappella settings from three composers at the peak of their mastery.

Conducted by Christopher Herrick

Book tickets via twickenhamchoral.org.uk

Scandal and Gallows Theatre Company

Heart of Darkness by George Johnston, after Joseph Conrad

Monday 3- Saturday 8 April, 8pm

The Old Sorting Office Arts Centre

From £12

Join Marlow on the deck of his steamboat as he recounts the story of his traumatic journey down the Congo River deep into the dark, greedy heart of European colonialism. Stripped back to the essentials – one man, the objects around him and his story – this adaptation draws out the intensely personal narrative in Conrad's tale.

After a five-star run at last year's Edinburgh Fringe, Scandal and Gallows Theatre are bringing their searing one-man adaptation of Heart of Darkness to the OSO.
