Your Council Tax bill

Council Tax is based on 2 or more people aged 18 or over living in your home. If you are the only person living in your home, we can reduce your bill by a quarter. If nobody lives in your home, we maybe able to reduce your bill.

Some people are not counted as living in your home when we work out your Council Tax bill. These people are disregarded. So even if there are two or more people living in your home, if some or all of you are disregarded we may be able reduce your bill.

How to apply for a discount

People are not automatically disregarded.

If you think that somebody in your home should be disregarded, please contact us for an application form. You will need to fill in a separate application form for each person.

If you qualify for a discount we will send you an amended bill. If we cannot reduce your bill we will write to you telling you why we have not been able to do so.

Disregard type 14

Members of Visiting Forces and their Dependants

We do not count people who have a relevant association with a qualifying visiting force.

A person has a relevant association if he or she is:

- a member of that force, or a member of a civilian component of that force
- a dependant of a member, provided that the dependant is not a British Citizen or normally lives in the UK.

If your home is occupied only by members of visiting or their dependants, you may not need to pay anything. There is more information in the exemption Information leaflet. You can get a copy from any of our offices.

Exempt Properties

You do not have to pay any Council Tax on some types of home. These are known as exempt homes.

How to apply for an exemption

Exemptions are not given automatically.

To apply for an exemption, you need to fill an application form and return it to us. Once you have returned it we will then either reduce your bill or let you know why we have not been able to do so.

Exemption type P

Properties that are lived in by visiting forces

A home is exempt which:

- is lived in by a member of a visiting force or
- is lived in by the dependants of a member of a visiting force if they are not British Citizens or they do not normally live in the United Kingdom, and
- they would be liable to pay Council Tax.

The property will be exempt as long as the circumstances remain the same. You must tell us about any changes that affect the exemption, for example someone else moving in or the property is sold.
