Various forms of equipment may be used to sculpt the body including weights, body bars, body balls, resistance bands and steps. Different formats are used to keep class interesting, challenging and fun.

CIRCUITS

A 45 minute class using a mix of body weight and free weights, to include core, cardio, upper and lower body stations to ensure you work the major muscle groups during the class. Each station is timed enabling everyone to work at their own level, making it a suitable class for all abilities and fitness levels.

HATHA FLOW

This is a combination of strength and flexibility. It is a more dynamic class where poses are developed and challenge you to your skill.

FALLS PREVENTION

All classes are run by tutors who have undertaken the Postural Stability Course run by Later Life Training (the current recommended training course). Tutors use gentle movements to strengthen the legs, arms, back, ankle and pelvic floor muscles which help to improve balance and mobility.

IYENGAR YOGA

The Iyengar yoga approach to Hatha Yoga is characterised by attention to alignment, detail and by the use of 'props' to achieve the right action in asana. It is a progressive, cumulative method which enables learners to progress safely and extend personal limitations irrespective of age and ability. All participants must have completed a beginners course or be experienced in yoga prior to joining a general level class.

LIVING WELL

Exercise class for existing or new exercise referral members who have completed a screening process with one of the exercise referral instructors.

LOW IMPACT CONDITIONING

A general class for low impact of all levels. The class comprises of low impact aerobics section followed by conditioning work, core work and stretches that incorporate body balls, exercise bands and light hand weights. Emphasis is put on maintaining or improving posture and range of motion around the major joints. A great class to work at your own pace and level. Alternative exercises given to accommodate all.

LEGS, BUMS & TUMS

A great fat burner to improve body shape. The class incorporates an aerobic section followed by conditioning exercises to target the lower body and core. The focus is on improving body shape and encouraging fat reduction. Benefits your overall health, stamina & boosts self-confidence! Suitable for all, as alternative exercises can be given.

PILATES

With a focus on core stability, the class will work with postural alignment and a variety of exercises to improve mobility, flexibility and strength. Some classes may use small pieces of equipment or the stability ball to enhance flexibility, strength and control. Suitable for any age and body shape, as alternative levels will be offered. However, all participants must have completed a beginners course or be experienced in Pilates prior to joining a general level class.

PI-YOGA

A fusion of Pilates and classical Yoga with an emphasis on postural alignment. Combining both the core-discipline of Pilates with the strength, flexibility and breath control of Yoga.

TAI-CHI

Chen style Tai Chi helps achieve optimum health, confidence and calmness through the practise of a powerful and effective combat system. Tai-Chi is one of the exquisite works of Chinese Martial Arts and is loved for its positive effect in health preservation and self-defence. Suitable for all ages and abilities.

YIN YOGA/MEDITATION

Traditional Eastern discipline that combines strength and flexibility through a series of yoga poses. This yoga helps to develop a sense of inner wellbeing and calmness. The ultimate aim of this session is to relax the mind/body and learn a healthy approach to life. Not suitable for beginners.
