BYELAWS for the good rule and government of the Borough of Richmond (Surrey), and for the prevention and suppression of nuisances not already punishable in a summary manner by virtue of any Act in force throughout the Borough, made in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, by the Town Council of the said Borough, at a meeting held at the Town Hall in the said Borough on Tuesday, the tenth day of June, 1896, at which not less than two-thirds of the whole number of the Council were present :

DISTURBANCE OF PERSONS ASSEMBLED IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

1. Where any persons are assembled in a church, chapel, or other place of worship, or in a theatre, public hall, public concert room, public lecture room, or in any place of assembly for persons admitted thereto by tickets or otherwise, or where any persons may be in a hospital, infirmary, or other building used for the reception and treatment of the sick, no person shall sound or play upon any musical or noisy instrument, or sing or shout in any street within one hundred yards of such building or place as aforesaid, to the annoyance or disturbance of any of the persons therein, after being required by any constable or by any person so annoyed or disturbed, or by any person acting on his behalf, to cease such playing, singing, or shouting.

SAVING CLAUSE.

2. The foregoing Byelaw No. 1 shall not apply to bands belonging to any branch of Her Majesty's Army, Navy, or Reserve forces.

INTERFERENCE WITH FOOT PASSENGERS IN STREETS.

3. If two or more persons assembled together in any street shall so act as to obstruct, insult or annoy any foot passenger, or wilfully and persistently loiter at or near the entrance of any church, chapel, or other place of public worship during the time of divine service, or during the assembly thereat, or departure therefrom, of the congregation, so as to obstruct or cause annoyance to persons going to, attending at, or returning from, any such place of public worship, every such person shall, when requested by any constable, or any person so obstructed, insulted, or annoyed, comply with the request of every such constable or person to move away so as to leave and continue to leave the footway clear and unobstructed.

INDECENT BATHING.

4. No person shall bathe from the bank or strand of any river, pond, lake, or stream, or from any boat therein, without wearing suitable drawers or other sufficient dress or covering to prevent indecent exposure. Provided always that this bye-law shall not apply to a person bathing in water within private property, which shall be at the least one hundred yards from any public highway or footpath.

UNCOVERED CARCASSES IN STREETS.

5. No person shall carry or convey the carcass or parts of the carcass of any animal, except meat dressed for sale, in any manner howsoever in or through any street without the same being entirely covered.

STREET CRIES.

6. No vendor of newspapers or other articles shall call or shout, or ring a bell continuously in any street so as to cause annoyance to any person residing in or occupying any house, shop, warehouse, or office in such street or in any adjoining street.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT, OBSTRUCTION, ETC.

7. No person shall in any street or public place within the Borough, to the annoyance or obstruction of residents or passengers, commit any riotous, disorderly, or indecent act, or by disorderly shouting, singing, fighting or brawling, create a disturbance.

INDECENT SHOWS.

8. No person shall exhibit any indecent show in any street or public place, or in any place to which admission is obtained by payment of money or by ticket or otherwise.

CARRYING DANGEROUS ARTICLES ALONG FOOTPATHS.

9. No person shall, to the danger or inconvenience of any other person, carry or convey along any footpath, any bag of soot, lime, or other like substance, or any edged tools not properly protected.

ADVERTISING.

10. No person in a cart, carriage, or other vehicle, or on foot, shall exhibit in any street in the Borough any advertisement on any cart, carriage, or vehicle which shall be used or constructed solely or chiefly for the purpose of exhibiting advertisements, so as to obstruct, incommode, or cause danger to the traffic in such street.
11. No person shall suspend over any street any sign board, flag, or banner for the purpose of advertisement which shall be more than three feet six inches in length or two feet six inches in breadth.

CATTLE NOT TO BE DRIVEN THROUGH STREETS WITHIN CERTAIN HOURS.

12. No person shall drive or conduct any cattle through or along any street between the hours of ten in the morning and five in the evening, provided nevertheless that nothing in this bye-law contained shall interfere with the driving to their destination of any cattle which have arrived at any railway station within the Borough during the before-mentioned hours.

INTERPRETATION.

Throughout these Bye-Laws the word "street" means and includes any highway, any public bridge, and any road, lane, footway, square, court, alley, or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not.

"Public place" includes any common, public park, or pleasure ground, roadside waste, churchyard or chapel-yard, and any land or other open space to which the public have access, whether by payment of money or not.
