BYELAWS

For the good rule and government of the Borough of Twickenham, and for prevention of nuisances, made by the Council of the Borough in pursuance of section 23 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, at a Meeting of the Council held on the thirty-first day of October, 1929, at which twenty-nine members of the Council were present, being not less than two-thirds of the whole number of the Council.

INTERPRETATION

1. Throughout these Byelaws the expression "The Council" means the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Twickenham acting by the Council.

"The Borough" means the Borough of Twickenham.

"Street" means and includes any highway, public bridge, road, lane, footway, mews, square, court, alley or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not.

"Public Place" includes any common, pleasure grounds, roadside waste, churchyard, or chapelyard, and any open space to which the public have access for the time being.

"Cattle". The word "cattle" shall include bulls, oxen, cows, heifers, calves, sheep, goats and swine.

BROKEN GLASS ON HIGHWAYS OR PUBLIC PLACES

2. No person shall throw, place or leave any bottle or any broken glass, nails or other sharp substance (not being road material) on or in any street or public place, in such a position as to be likely to cause injury to passengers or animals or damage to property.

BULLS

3. No person shall drive or lead, or cause to be driven or led, in any street or public place, any bull exceeding the age of twelve months, unless it is properly secured and kept under proper control.

CARRYING CARCASES, ETC.

4. No person shall carry or convey along or through any street or public place the undressed carcase of any animal or any offensive offal unless the same be properly covered.

CARRYING SOOT, ETC.

5. No person shall in any street or public place, to the inconvenience or danger of passengers, carry or convey along any footpath, any bag of soot, lime or other offensive substances or any pointed or edged tools or implements not properly protected.

CONTENTS OF ASHBINS

6. No person shall in any street or in any forecourt adjoining any street wilfully disturb the contents of any ashbin or other receptacle for house refuse awaiting removal by a scavenging cart so that such contents are strewn in such street.

DANGEROUS GAMES NEAR STREETS

7. No person shall on any land adjoining a street, play tipcat or any offensive or dangerous game, in such a manner as to cause obstruction to the traffic or danger to any person in such street.

DEFACING PAVEMENTS, ETC.

8. No person shall for the purposes of advertising deface the footway or roadway of any street by writing or other marks.

DESTRUCTION OF WILD PLANTS

9. No person shall (unless authorised by the owner or occupier, if any, or by law so to do) uproot any ferns or other plants growing in any road, lane, roadside waste, roadside bank or hedge, common or other place to which the public have access.

FIGHTING

10. No person shall, in any street, or public place, fight or provoke or incite any person or animal to fight.

FLAGS, ETC.

11. No person shall place or suspend any flag, banner, streamer or other similar device, containing any advertisement relating to any bazaar, entertainment, trade or business in, over, or across any street to the annoyance of residents or passengers or to the alarm of horses.

FOULING BY DOGS ON FOOTWAYS

12. Repealed. (See byelaw No. 2, dated 30th May, 1938, page 22.)

INDECENT BATHING

13. No person shall within two hundred yards of any street or public place, unless effectually screened from view, bathe from the bank or strand of any water, or from any boat thereon, without wearing a dress or covering sufficient to prevent exposure of the person.

INDECENT LANGUAGE, ETC.

14. No person shall in any street or public place, or in any place within view or hearing of any street, or public place, use any indecent language or gestures, or commit or solicit, incite or provoke any other person to commit any indecent act to the annoyance of residents or passengers.

LOITERING AT CHURCH DOORS

15. No person shall wilfully and persistently loiter at or near the entrance of any church, chapel, or other place of public worship to the annoyance or obstruction of any persons going to, attending at, or returning from divine service in such church, chapel, or other place of public worship.

NOISY ANIMALS

16. No person shall keep within any house, building or premises, any noisy animal, which shall be, or cause a serious nuisance to residents in the neighbourhood. Provided that no proceedings shall be taken against any person for an offence against this byelaw unless the nuisance be continued after the expiration of a fortnight from the date of the service on such person of a notice alleging a nuisance, signed by not less than three householders residing within hearing of the animal.

ORANGE PEEL, ETC.

17. No person shall in any street, or public place, throw or leave any orange peel, banana skin, or other dangerous substance on any footway.

OVERLOADING TRADE VEHICLES, ETC.

18. Repealed. (See byelaw dated 1st January, 1931, page 12.)

PASSENGERS IN PUBLIC CONVEYANCES

19. If any person on any public coach or other public carriage for the conveyance of passengers, or on any coach, brake, waggonette or any other vehicle hired or used for the conveyance of pleasure parties and the like:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Throwing of money, etc. | (ii) shall throw any money or other article to be scrambled for by children or other persons on the road or footway; or |
| Attachment of streamers, etc. | (iii) shall attach to, or hang, throw, or trail from the vehicle any streamer, balloon or similar article in such a manner as to cause danger to the traffic or injury to any person using the highway; or |
| Throwing of bottles, etc. | (iv) shall throw from the vehicle any bottle or other article or thing which is likely to cause damage or injury to persons or property; or |
| Throwing of paper, etc. | (v) shall throw or scatter from the vehicle, any newspaper, paper wrappings or coverings, orange peel, banana skins or other litter; |

such person shall be liable on summary conviction to the penalty hereinafter provided for each offence, and the conductor (if any) employed on the vehicle and the person who had engaged or obtained the use of the vehicle on the occasion on which the offence was committed shall also be liable to the like penalty unless he proves that he took no part in and was unable to prevent the offence, and that he had given all the information in his power as to the person or persons by whom the offence was committed.

Nothing in paragraph (i) of this byelaw shall prevent the use of a horn in a reasonable manner by one person on a coach or similar vehicle.

PERAMBULATORS ON FOOTPATH

20. No person shall, to the annoyance, obstruction, or danger of passengers, (i) wheel, pull, draw or push any perambulator or other similar vehicle abreast of any similar vehicle on any footway; (ii) use a perambulator on any footway for any other purpose than that of carrying children or invalids.

PUBLIC DECENCY

21. No person shall in any street or public place, commit or attempt to commit any act of indecency with any other person.

PULLING DOWN NOTICES

22. No person shall pull down or deface any authorised public notice on any wall or other place where such notice may be lawfully affixed.

SHOOTING GALLERIES, ROUNDABOUTS, ETC.

23. No person shall, in connection with any roundabout, show, exhibition or performance placed or held in any street, or on any vacant ground adjoining or near to any street, make or cause to be made any loud and continuous noise by means of any organ or other similar instrument, to the annoyance of residents or passengers.

24. No person shall in any street, or on any land adjoining or near thereto, keep or manage, or cause to be kept or managed a shooting gallery, swing-boat, roundabout, or any other construction of a like character, so as to cause obstruction or danger to the traffic in any such street.

SHOUTING IN STREETS

25. No person shall for the purpose of hawking, selling, distributing or advertising any article, or for the purpose of collecting rags and bones, old clothes, bottles and similar articles, call, shout or use any bell, gong or other noisy instrument in any street or public place, so as to cause annoyance to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood.

SPITTING

26. (Paved footways of public streets).

This byelaw ceased to be in force after the 31st December, 1931.

(No re-enacting byelaw made).

STREET MUSIC

27. (a) No person shall sound or play upon any musical or noisy instrument or wantonly and continuously shout or sing in any street or public place within fifty yards of any school, public library, municipal offices, place of public worship or public entertainment or other place of public assembly in which persons are for the time being assembled, to the annoyance or disturbance of any person or persons so assembled, after being requested to desist by any constable, or by any person so annoyed or disturbed, or by any person acting on his behalf.

(b) No person shall sound or play upon any musical or noisy instrument or wantonly and continuously shout or sing in any street or public place within fifty yards of any hospital, infirmary, convalescent home, or other place used for the reception or treatment of the sick, after being requested to desist by any constable, or by any inmate or officer of such hospital, or other place, or by any person acting on his behalf.

Provided that this byelaw shall not apply to any band belonging to any branch of His Majesty's Naval, Army, Air, Reserve or Territorial Forces, nor to a band playing in an appointed place with the sanction of the Council.

THREATENING LANGUAGE, ETC.

28. No person shall in any street or public place, or in any place, within view or hearing of any street or public place, use any threatening, abusive, or insulting language, gesture or conduct with intent to put any person in fear or so as to occasion a breach of the peace.

TOUTING

29. No person shall in any street or public place for the purpose of selling or advertising any article or obtaining custom, tout or importune to the annoyance or obstruction of passengers.

UNAUTHORISED PERSONS ON SCHOOL PREMISES

30. Any person other than a teacher, child, manager, or other duly authorised person, being in or on the buildings, playground, or other premises of any Public Elementary School, who, after being requested to depart therefrom by the Head Teacher or the Teacher acting as the Head Teacher of such school, or other responsible person appointed by the managers of the school to act in the absence of the teachers, refuses to depart therefrom, and makes use of any violent, abusive, profane, indecent, or obscene language, or otherwise behaves in a disorderly manner, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to the penalty hereinafter provided.

VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

31. No owner of a vehicle shall drive such vehicle or permit the same to be driven or to be upon any highway unless it be so constructed that the driver thereof shall have a full and uninterrupted view of the traffic on such highway in front and abreast of him on each side, and no person who shall be driving any vehicle upon any highway shall occupy such a position as will prevent or interfere with his having such full and uninterrupted view as aforesaid.

WASTE PAPER OR OTHER REFUSE IN STREETS

32 and 33. Repealed. (See byelaw No. 6, dated 27th February, 1936, page 16.)

WILFUL JOSTLING

34. If two or more persons assembled together wilfully obstruct the free use of any street, or wilfully jostle or annoy any foot passengers, and continue such obstruction, jostling, or annoyance after being required by a constable to desist, each such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to the penalty hereinafter provided.

WIRELESS LOUD SPEAKERS

35. Repealed. (See byelaw dated 27th September, 1934, Page 15.)

PENALTY

36. Any person offending against any of the foregoing byelaws, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

37. From and after the date on which the foregoing byelaws come into force, the byelaws made by the County Council of the administrative County of Middlesex for the good rule and government of the County, and which are now in force, shall cease to be in force within the Borough.

BYELAWS

For the good rule and government of the Borough of Twickenham made by the Council of the Borough in pursuance of section 249 of the Local Government Act, 1933, at a meeting of the Council held on the thirtieth day of May, 1938.

INTERPRETATION

Throughout these byelaws the expression "street" means and includes any highway, and any road, bridge, lane, mews, square, court, alley or passage, to which the public have access for the time being, whether a thoroughfare or not.

LOADING OF VEHICLES

1. (a) The owner of a vehicle shall not allow such vehicle to be used in a street for the purpose of carrying sand, gravel, ballast, lime, mortar, coal, coke, clay or soil unless it be so constructed and kept in such repair that it will carry its load without the repeated dropping of any part or parts of the load.

(b) Every person loading a vehicle or causing a vehicle to be loaded with sand, gravel, ballast, lime, mortar, coal, coke, clay or soil for carriage along any street, shall load it or cause it to be loaded, as the case may be, in such a manner as to prevent the repeated dropping of any part or parts of the load.

(c) If any sand or gravel which is or is about to be loaded into a vehicle for carriage along any street is saturated with water and the vehicle is not so constructed and maintained as to prevent the water dropping or leaking from it, any person in charge of the vehicle or the loading thereof shall take all such steps as are reasonably practicable to drain off the said water so that it shall not drop or leak from the vehicle on to the street and render it dangerous to traffic.

FOULING BY DOGS OF FOOTWAY

2. Re-enacted. (See byelaw dated 1st May, 1941, page 25.)

PENALTY CLAUSE

3. Any person offending against any of the foregoing byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5.

REPEAL

4. From and after the date on which the foregoing byelaws come into operation, No. 12 of the byelaws made by the Council on the 31st October, 1929, under section 23 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as to fouling by dogs of footways, and Nos. 1 and 2 of the byelaws made by the Council on the 1st January, 1931, under the same statute as to loading of vehicles shall be and are hereby repealed.

The Corporate Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Twickenham was hereunto affixed in the presence of Seal Register No. 10015.

EDGAR OLLIS,
Mayor.

EDWIN G. STRAY,

BYELAW

For the good rule and government of the Borough of Twickenham made by the Council of the Borough in pursuance of section 249 of the Local Government Act, 1933, at a meeting of the Council held on the first day of May, 1941.

1. INTERPRETATION

Throughout this byelaw the expression "street" means and includes any highway, and any road, bridge, lane, mews, square, court, alley or passage, to which the public have access for the time being, whether a thoroughfare or not.

2. FOULING BY DOGS OF FOOTWAYS

(i) No person in charge of a dog shall allow the dog to foul the footway of any street or public place by depositing its excrement thereon. Provided that a person shall not be liable to be convicted of an offence against this byelaw, if he satisfies the Court that the fouling of the footway by the dog was not due to culpable neglect or default on his part.

(ii) For the purpose of this byelaw the owner of the dog shall be deemed to be in charge thereof, unless the Court is satisfied that at the time when the dog fouled the footway it had been placed in or taken into the charge of some other person.

3. PENALTY

Any person offending against the foregoing byelaw shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5.

The Corporate Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Twickenham was hereunto affixed in the presence of
