TREATMENT – Acupressure	DATA SHEET 1
--------------------------------	---------------------

Description

Based on Chinese beliefs that energy flows through invisible channels in the body called meridians, and that illness arises from blockages of or imbalances in, this energy flow.

The body is divided into 12 meridians, which correspond to different areas of the body after a detailed consultation with the client the operative will apply pressure to the points that they believe to be causing the blockages.

Some operatives will tap the points instead or press and release the points. A similar treatment to Acupuncture and Shiatsu but without the use of needles or massage.

The client generally remains clothed in non-restrictive garments.

It purports that by restoring the flow of energy it thereby alleviates disease and promotes health, promotes a speedy recovery from injuries and relieves pain.

TREATMENT – Acupuncture	DATA SHEET NO. 2

Description

Based on the same Chinese beliefs as Acupressure, namely that the energy forces flow through invisible channels in the body called meridians, and that illness arises from blockages of, or imbalances in, this energy flow.

Needles are inserted along any number of the 12 meridians which have been identified during the consultation as possibly being out of balance, they may be twirled or moved in a back and forth motion. In some circumstances the needles are stimulated electrically.

Needles may also be inserted into the ear this is called Auricular Acupuncture.

Research suggests that the treatment releases endorphins into the central nervous system, which give similar results to morphine but are a natural painkiller.

It purports to restore the flow of energy thereby alleviating disease and promoting health, may be beneficial in the treatment of addictions e.g. smoking

Can induce a state of anaesthesia prior to surgery and may be beneficial during the labour and delivery.

TREATMENT – Ayurvedic Medicine	DATA SHEET NO 7

Description

The traditional form of Indian medicine over 2,000 years old. It is rapidly growing in popularity in the West.

The body is seen as a universe containing five elements, air, fire, water, earth and ether, these combine together to form 3 other groups known as wind, choler and phlegm.

Each of these groups has its own qualities and functions in relation to the body, and the balance between the groups determines the individual's constitution.

Disease occurs if lifestyle, mental or external factors cause an imbalance in one or more of the components.

Treatment aims to restore the balance by the use of herbal medicines combined with dietary and lifestyle advice and yoga exercises.

TREATMENT – Bach Flower Remedies	DATA SHEET NO 8

Description

Harmful emotions are classified into 7 main categories and then sub divided into 38 negative feelings. Each feeling is associated with a particular plant, a combination of 5 of these flowers has been called the Rescue Remedy which is used in times of extreme trauma or shock.

The essences are liquid preparations created by boiling parts of plants in spring water, the water is then preserved in brandy and sold in concentrated form. The remedies are usually self administered by placing drops directly on the tongue or by diluting them.

TREATMENT – Bio resonance Therapy	DATA SHEET NO. 12

Description

This therapy is based on the theory that everything in the universe including our bodies is made of energy. It uses a machine to detect and treat disturbances in the natural frequency range of the body.

No artificial energy is introduced into the body. The person being treated is connected to an aerial tuned to specific frequencies. The body's own vital energy and healing power do the work of coming into resonance with the frequencies. Thus allowing the system to easily remove toxins from the body.

This should be carried out by the use of an approved gun, e.g. Inverness, Caflon, Studex etc who supply pre sterilised studs which do not come into contact with the operative's skin during the procedure.

More recently the nose, belly button and nipples have become more popular with teenage girls in particular. Some practitioners also undertake genital piercings, eyebrows, etc.

Nose piercing can be carried out by a gun or a pre sterilised medical canular. Studex have produced a nose piercing gun for use in the beauty industry similar to the ear piercing system but the stud which is used is not fitted with a butterfly clip as this would cause the nose to swell.

Canular Piercing : This method of piercing is used mainly in European studios by means of a pre sterilised fully disposable canular/needle available in various sizes which are disposed of as Sharps, the needle is only inserted ¼ inch which reduces the risk of needle stick injury considerably .

Blade Piercing: This method is used mainly in American studios using a blade instead of a needle, the blade is inserted 1.5 inches to allow for the insertion of the jewellery, this would increase the risk of needle stick injuries.

TREATMENT – Body Talk System	DATA SHEET NO 16a

Description

Developed in the 1990's by Australian acupuncturist Dr Veltheim, who carried out extensive studies of different healing systems and took the most fundamental principles from each to create a holistic all encompassing system capable of treating a large range of conditions.

The practitioner uses a yes /no response to discover areas of the body in need of balancing. They then carry out a light pressing or lifting of the arm to discover which systems are not functioning properly.

The balance will be restored by a light tapping of particular points and deep breathing.

Purported to relieve various conditions e.g. depression, allergies, back pain etc.

TREATMENT – Body Wraps/Envelopment	DATA SHEET NO 17

Description

The paste is applied all over the body which is then wrapped in warm cotton bandages which are pre soaked in the solution. The client is then enveloped in a thermal blanket and left for about an hour, during which time it is purported that the toxins in the body will have been expelled from the body.

After the bandages are removed the client is encouraged to leave the remaining solution on the body for 3-4 days if possible as detoxification is thought to continue.

The client would then be measured again for inch loss.

TREATMENT – Botox	DATA SHEET NO 18

Description

Botox is an endotoxin produced by Clostridium Botulinum, it is a powerful nerve agent and in a different context a dangerous food poisoning toxin.

It is a Prescription Only Medicine (POM) and should therefore only be administered by a registered medical practitioner or a registered general nurse.

It is administered by injection into the facial muscles and blocks the nervous impulses that control these muscles. Because the treated muscles cannot contract, they tend to relax, taking away the facial lines and imparting the appearance of smooth skin.

Botox can be used in combination with cosmetic filler implants e.g. Hyaluronic Acid to provide a non surgical 'face-lift'

The effects of the treatment last approximately 3-6 months.

TREATMENT – Bowen Technique	DATA SHEET NO 19

Description

TREATMENT – Branding	DATA SHEET NO 20
-----------------------------	-------------------------

As it heals the scar spreads completing the pattern.

TREATMENT – (BSSF) Be Set Free Fast	DATA SHEET NO 20a

Description

Developed in America in 1990 by clinical psychologist Larry Nims, it is a highly focused Energy Therapy method for eliminating the emotional roots and self-limiting belief systems that are embedded in the subconscious mind, and which automatically determine and control most of our experience, self-expression and behaviour. These unresolved negative emotions and beliefs create and maintain psychological and physical symptoms, which automatically result in mental, emotional, physical, spiritual and life adjustment problems, including many medical, and health problems.

Muscle testing is used extensively for precision diagnosis of emotionally based problems. clients are taught to muscle test themselves, to recognize and eliminate their psychological problems as well as numerous physical symptoms that are emotionally based.

Treatment consists of light tapping of meridian points whilst repeating a number of statements similar to TAT treatment

TREATMENT – Buteyko	DATA SHEET NO. 21

Description

Buteyko works according to the principle that certain conditions are caused or at the very least aggravated by over breathing i.e. breathing heavily and rapidly through the mouth.

Over breathing is thought to be harmful to the body because it depletes the bloodstream of carbon monoxide, thus causing blood vessel spasms and oxygen starvation which can cause asthma attacks, headaches etc.

A set of exercises are taught to the patient in which the patient takes in small breaths through the nose and lets out the air slowly and gently through the mouth.

The chiropractic will assess the client whilst sitting standing and lying down for alignment, reflexes will be tested and muscles palpated for signs of tension.

Manipulation may be carried out by stretching muscles and short controlled thrusts against a joint, also include may be massage, application of heat or ice and kneading.

Different versions of the treatment may be found e.g. Mctimoney Chiropractic.

TREATMENT – Cholesterol Testing	DATA SHEET NO. 25

Description

Cholesterol is a fat manufactured by the liver from fatty foods that we eat.

Cholesterol insulates nerve fibres and is an essential building block for hormones. There are good and bad types of cholesterol:

- 1) Low density lipoprotein (LDL). This is the bad cholesterol which caused a harmful build up in the arteries.

2) High density lipoprotein (HDL) This is the good cholesterol and is thought to prevent arterial disease. It takes cholesterol away from the cells and back to the liver where it is broken down and passed by the body.

To measure the levels of good and bad cholesterol a blood test is carried out after fasting for 12 hours prior to the test. The optimum level is below 5mmol/litre.

Home testing kits are also available but will not give very accurate results.

TREATMENT – Collagen (Cosmetic Filler Implant)	DATA SHEET NO. 26

Description

Collagen is a naturally occurring substance present in the deepest layer of the skin called the dermis.

It is responsible for producing the elasticity of the skin and as the skin ages the levels of collagen naturally fall, making the skin dryer and commonly wrinkles appear.

The replacement of collagen into the dermis can be done by implants or the application of facemasks or creams, the collagen fills out the vacant spaces in the dermis and thus reduces the wrinkles on the skin.

Collagen is classified as a 'medical device' product and as such is subject to the requirements of the EU Medical Device Directive. The injections should only be administered by registered medical practitioners or registered general nurses.

These injections are commonly used on the forehead furrows and around the lip and mouth area, they give temporary results lasting approximately a year.

TREATMENT – Colonic Irrigation (hydrotherapy / lavage)	DATA SHEET NO 27

Description

This treatment dates back to 1500 B.C and is based on the principle that the colon gets clogged up with impacted faecal matter, gases and mucus products. This leads to a build up of toxins, which inhibit the natural movement leading to constipation.

A rubber tube is inserted into the colon via the rectum, the therapist stimulates the abdomen which releases the stored matter. A constant flow of water washes the whole colon.

During a 45 minute session up to 15 gallons of water may be used.

Therapists claim that it will:

- 1) Cleanse the Colon- toxic material is broken down so that it can no longer harm the body.
- 2) Exercise the Colon – the gentle filling and emptying of the colon improves muscular contraction activity.
- 3) Reshapes the Colon- elimination of bulging pockets of waste enabling the colon to resume its natural state.

TREATMENT – Colour Therapy	DATA SHEET NO 28

Description

Therapy based on ancient healing systems which recognise the qualities of different colours and their effect on us.

Each colour in the spectrum has a frequency, wavelength and energy associated with it. The body absorbs colours which can affect the nervous system, endocrine system and subsequently the release of hormones and other organic substances within the body.

It is believed that the symptoms of disease are a sign that there is a shortage of or improper utilization of colour and light in the cells and organs of the body.

The practitioner will identify the colour frequencies that are needed and then apply coloured light to parts of the body or simply use appropriately coloured water, silk scarves or crystals.

Advice would be given on how to make the best use of colour in the diet, clothes, home and work environment.

TREATMENT Craniosacral Therapy	DATA SHEET NO 29

Description

Cranial Osteopathy was developed in the early 20th Century by an osteopath called William Sutherland.

He recognised that there is a regular pulse in the cerebrospinal fluid which surrounds the brain and any disturbance to the rhythm would result in an imbalance somewhere in the body.

The therapist uses tiny, gentle manipulations of the skull, and spinal column to restore the balance.

Craniosacral Therapy developed from this treatment and the main differences are that it focuses on the treatment of the soft tissues, fluid and membrane of the cranio-sacral system rather than the bones.

TREATMENT – Cryotherapy (cryogenic chamber therapy)	DATA SHEET NO 30

Description

Whole body cryotherapy initially originated in Japan in 1978. A group of Polish scientists took the idea and opened the Olympic rehabilitation centre in Poland in 2000 where the treatment has been used ever since.

The chamber is cooled with liquid nitrogen to a temperature of -110 C .The patient is protected from frostbite with socks gloves and mouth and ear protection but other than that wears only a bathing suit .

The patient spends a few minutes in the chamber during which time the average skin temperature drops to between 5 and 12 C. The core body temperature remains unchanged during the treatment. Release of endorphins occurs resulting in immediate pain relief.

Patients report improvement to a variety of conditions, including muscle and joint pain, psoriasis, insomnia,

The immediate effect of skin cooling and analgesia lasts for 5 minutes, but the release of endorphins can have a lasting effect, where the pains and signs of inflammation as found in blood tests remain suppressed for weeks.

TREATMENT – Crystal/Electro Crystal Healing	DATA SHEET NO 31

Description

Crystals can focus the electromagnetic fields that surround cell membranes. During crystal healing placing the crystals on nerve clusters could lead to significant alterations in the traffic of neurochemical messengers within the nervous system and thus affect body wide chemistry.

Electro Crystal Healing

A tube of crystals is placed over the area to be treated and then the healing qualities of the crystals are magnified thousands of times by pulsing particular electrical signals through them.

TREATMENT - Cupping	DATA SHEET NO 32

The area of skin covered is drawn up a few millimetres into the cup moving the energy.

Skin marking is common after the cups are removed this may vary from a simple red ring to deeper bruising.

Wet cupping – a small scratch or incision is made with a lancet prior to the cupping, blood is then extracted and contained within the cups. There is a danger of blood clotting following this procedure so a brisk walk should follow treatment.

- 2) Blend Method- A combination of faradic and galvanic current is passed through the needle to kill the hair follicle.
- 3) Trans dermal (TE) method- The client holds an electrode in one hand the therapist has another electrode with a cotton wool tip, gel is applied to the skin and the electrode is passed over the gel, the electric current forces the gel down through the skin and it crystallises the salt & water solution surrounding the hair follicle which in turn kills the follicle.

After each treatment it is claimed that the hair follicle grows weaker and hair re-growth lessens until eventually after several treatments the hair ceases to appear on the skin surface. (this could take several years of treatment)

As well as a purely cosmetic treatment some operatives treat clients who have been referred to them by doctors because of excessive hair growth, which may be caused by hormone problems or genetic abnormalities.

A gentle bio-energetic resonance travels through the body which encourages a rebalance within the user. The water turns shades of brown or orange as the toxins are supposedly released.

A very intense beam of laser light is fired through the skin at the hair root; the dark hair becomes very hot and damages the cells that produce the hair.

If the light is intense enough then the hair follicle is damaged to an extent where it can no longer produce hair at all. If the hair follicle is damaged to a lesser extent, the result will be re-growth of the hair after a few weeks, which is fairer and finer than the original.

This is a cosmetic treatment for the removal of hair but some clients may be referred by a Doctor for dense hair growth caused by a medical condition.

Lifestyle Laser Lipo is one of the types of laser used.

This massage is carried out with the clothes on.

Before treatment begins the therapist will take the various pulses and ask to see the tongue, which gives an indication as to the level of acidity. Muscle and nerve reflexes are also checked.

The pressure from the massage is intense and may cause pain in less fleshy areas of the body.
